TAN OXFORDS

ARE NECESSARY THIS SEASON.

THE Tan Oxford is this season claiming its rightful place as the best summer shoe. Tan is the coolest leather that can be worn—the softest and easiest on the feet. Many exclusive styles here, including several of the season's fad—the sailor tie.

Brown Ooze Calf Sailor Tie, welted soles, Cuban heel, plain toe $3.50

Brown Kid Sailor Tie, welted soles, medium heel and toe $3.00

Brown Kid Sailor Tie, turn sole, soft as a glove, rather narrow toe $3.00

Laird, Schober & Co.'s Tan Oxfords

A southern tie, made of tan kid, with cloth top and very light turn sole; is a great seller; extremely soft and pleasant to the feet. Then, a great variety of Russia calf welt oxfords for street wear.

The southern tie is $4 The welt oxfords $5

Queen Quality Tan Oxfords

Gibson Ties, blucher oxfords and plain lace styles in Russia calf, with welted soles, sailor ties, Gibson ties and button oxfords, in tan vici with light flexible soles. Prices:

2.50 and $3

Laird, Schober & Co.'s are practically the only women's fine shoes in the country. They are unequalled in any respect—but especially in daintiness of style, flexibility and ease to the feet, and superb fitting qualities. Queen Quality Oxfords are pre-eminent among medium-price shoes—especially in the point of comfortable fit, and we carry a large enough variety in both lines to insure a pleasing selection and perfect fit.

KILLED BY C. & O. TRAIN.

When the C. & O. train, east-bound, on Saturday night, reached Benson Station, a man by the name of Thos. Hudson (who was employed at the rock crusher) attempted to cross the track just as the train reached that point (stepping out from between two cars on the switch), was struck by the engine and instantly killed. His arm was cut off and his body horribly crushed. The train does not stop at this station and it was utterly impossible for the engineer to stop it after the man was discovered. He lived near by the station and had a family. Coroner L. S. Graham was called and held an inquest, the verdict being in accord with the facts.

LEG AMPUTATED.

Mr. Wm. Sargent, who lives near the Big Eddy, some three miles above the city, had his right leg amputated below the knee on Wednesday last. Some time since Mr. Sargent had his foot badly frosted and necrosis of the bones set in rendering the operation necessary. Dr. G. K. Wallner, assisted by Dr. G. F. Thompson, performed the operation. He is doing as well as could be expected.

LOCAL MERCHANT ASSIGNED.

Mrs. Lizzie Green, who has been conducting a grocery store on Holmes street, made an assignment to Mr. Jere Bixler, on Wednesday last, for the benefit of creditors.

ANKLE SPRAINED.

As Mr. L. C. Tracey, motorman on the Frankfort and Versailles Traction Line, was attempting to change cars at the Thorn Hill switch, on Monday, he slipped and fell spraining his ankle and wrenching his back pretty severely. Surgical attention was at once rendered.

A KINDLY COURTESY.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the Commencement Exercises of the Graduating Class of the Technical School of Cincinnati, Ohio, which occurred on Thursday evening, June 8th. A former Frankfort boy, Mr. Ben T. Farmer, Jr., son of Mr. Ben T. Farmer, was one of the graduates, and to him we tender our thanks for the kindly courtesy extended. Will stands high in his class.

SAD AND SUDDEN DEATH.

On Wednesday last, as surgeons were preparing to perform an operation upon Mrs. Mary Dilger, wife of Mr. James Dilger, and after an anesthetic had been administered, her heart ceased to beat, and, in spite of everything that could be done, she passed away.

Mrs. Dilger had been in wretched health for a long time, and the physicians had informed her that the only hope of recovery was in an operation, but, at the same time, doubted whether she could withstand the shock of the necessary anesthetic and the operation. Both she and her husband recognized the facts, but still requested the surgeons to go ahead.

Mrs. Dilger (who was a Miss Baker), was 26 years of age, a devout Christian and a member of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

Beside her husband, she leaves one daughter, both parents, two sisters and four brothers to mourn her death.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Crowe, on yesterday, and the interment was in our cemetery.

FEAST OF PENTECOST.

Our Hebrew fellow-citizens observed yesterday as the "Feast of Pentecost." Their places of business were closed and they gave the whole day to the observance of the festival.

GRATEFUL CHANGE IN WEATHER.

Up to about 8 o'clock, on Wednesday, the weather was fearfully hot, the thermometer ranged above 90 degrees. At that hour a brisk northwest wind set in and the mercury dropped rapidly. Thursday morning it had reached a point where living was a joy and comfort.

FRANKFORT & CINCINNATI RAILWAY.

Effective June 1st, 1905, Mr. C. W. Hay is appointed General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway, succeeding S. E. Hutton, resigned.

GEO. B. HARPER, President.

BROKE A WHEEL.

Mr. W. R. Utterback attempted to drive on the St. Clair street bridge, Tuesday, just as a heavy wagon and a street car were passing. His horse shied from the car and the wagon struck his buggy, breaking down one of the wheels. Fortunately Mr. Utterback escaped injury.

APPOINTED SUBSTITUTE LETTER CARRIER.

Mr. Archie Smith has been appointed substitute letter carrier at our postoffice by the Department at Washington City, he having stood the Civil Service examination for that place. He is a clever and competent young man, and we congratulate him upon his selection.

SELLS HIS FARM.

Mr. Samuel E. Hutton, who recently resigned as General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway, has sold his farm of 2 1/2 acres, lying on the Louisville pike, to Mr. O. N. Smith, the wholesale provision merchant, for $2,000 cash.

"Every man is entitled to a square deal."—President Roosevelt.

My Own Story

—BY—

Caleb Powers

This book is a calm, dispassionate account, from the standpoint of the man most interested, of the conditions in Kentucky leading to the assassination of William Goebel, and of Powers' indictment and conviction on the charge of complicity in his murder.

It covers his youth in the mountains of Kentucky, the conventions of 1899, the election, the shooting of Goebel, the arrest, the three trials and the prison life.

For dramatic situations, human interest and political importance, the case of Caleb Powers is unequalled.

CASE REVERSED.

In the appealed case of E. H. Taylor, Jr. v. L. F. Johnson, in the contest for the Democratic nomination, for Representative from this county, the Court of Appeals, on Tuesday, reversed the action of the Franklin Circuit Court in deciding that Taylor had not given notice of contest in time, the Court holding that the contestant had fifteen days in which to file his notice of contest, whereas the lower court held that he only had ten days.

The Court also ordered that the Democratic Committee meet and hear the case upon its merits, taking all the evidence in the case.

As to whether the decision requires the counting of the ballots now in the ballot boxes, is a point upon which some of the best lawyers in the city are far agreed.

The case, however, is far from being settled yet, as it may not come on until the September term of Circuit Court.

CATCHES "A DARLING."

Officer James Brown caught a catfish on a trot line, near the Hermitage Distillery, on Thursday, which weighed 95 pounds. It was a "regular darling."

THIS THING MUST STOP.

Actually the Louisville Base Ball Club has won three straight games. This thing must be put a stop to, else that club will lose its pinch on last place in the Association.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, 'Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day,' is now generally presented in this form: 'Do it to-day!' That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure, as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists."

FRANKLIN BOYS GRADUATE.

Mr. Russell S. Penn and Mr. W. B. Jones, of Franklin county, graduated at Georgetown, on Wednesday, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. They are both first-class young fellows and give promise of large usefulness in the future. Mr. Jones expects to become a teacher. Mr. Penn will become a minister of the Baptist Church, as was his grandfather, the late Rev. Frank H. Hodges.

TAUGHT A LESSON.

A man by the name of Hall rendered himself a nuisance at the Cave Spring Park Theatre, on Thursday night, by creating a disturbance. The doorkeeper tried to quiet him, but it seemed to make the nuisance more offensive, when the doorkeeper took more stringent measures and choked the fellow into quietude.

He will know better next time.

CINCINNATI BUSINESS MEN VISIT OUR CITY.

The Business Men's Club, of Cincinnati, to the number of 204, headed by President Thomas Mullett, reached this city on Wednesday evening at 9:40 by way of the Q. & C. Railway and the Steamer Falls City.

The Reception Committee of the Business Men's Club, of this city, headed by Mr. J. Swigart Taylor, met the distinguished visitors at Look No. 5, and accompanied them to this place.

The Second Regiment Band and a large crowd of our citizens met the party at the Customhouse wharf and escorted them to the Capital Hotel, where addresses of welcome were made and replied to, and a dainty and appetizing supper was served.

At the conclusion of the supper, at about 12 o'clock, a procession was formed and the city's guests marched down Main street to St. Clair, down St. Clair to Broadway, and up Broadway to the depot, where a special train of five cars was in readiness to convey the excursionists back to their homes in the Queen City.

The prime object of the excursion was that the Business Men's Club might learn of the feasibility of putting a line of steamers on the Kentucky river to run from Cincinnati to this city and up river points.

The gentlemen expressed themselves as highly pleased with the hospitable reception accorded them, and they were unanimously of opinion that it was of prime importance to Cincinnati business men to have the line of steamers established, as a vast amount of trade would, in the long run, be taken to the Queen City which had been so long neglected.

The excursion was a great success.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF DIVINITY CONFERRED.

At the recent commencement of Georgetown College, the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon Rev. M. B. Adams, the scholarly and brilliant young pastor of the First Baptist Church, of this city, by the faculty of the college.

Dr. Adams is universally conceded to be one of the ablest of the rising young ministers of Kentucky. His attainments are of a high order. He is a hard student and an exceptionally strong preacher.

We congratulate his church and Dr. Adams upon this evidence of appreciation.

FIFTY CENTS

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a tonic which acts on the nerves so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seemingly stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $200.00 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."

FRANKLIN COUNTY SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The annual Sunday-school Convention was held last Friday, June 2, at Peak's Mill. It was a great success in many ways. The Christian Church was filled with a very deeply earnest crowd of Sunday-school workers, many from Frankfort and other parts of the county. Rev. M. B. Adams, of the Baptist Church, Rev. Wm. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian Church and Rev. C. R. Hudson, of the Christian Church, of Frankfort, each made stirring and instructive addresses on the various departments of Sunday-school work. Mr. W. G. Simpson, and several Sunday-school workers, both ladies and gentlemen, took part in discussions as to the best method to be used in teaching.

One of the very enjoyable features of the convention was the singing, which was fine.

A most beautiful and elegant dinner was served by the people of the Peak's Mill community.

The Nominating Committee reported the selection of officers for the coming year:

E. R. Jones, of Switzer, President.

Zack Church, of Stedmantown, Vice President.

Mrs. Mary B. R. Day, Frankfort, Recording Secretary.

Walter Jeddies, Visiting Secretary and Treasurer.

Mr. Jones has made such an efficient and acceptable President, during the past two years, that the Sunday-school workers were unwilling to give him up.

About thirty Sunday-schools have been reported, but only twelve have sent in reports.

A collection was taken for State work and workers, which amounted to about thirteen or fourteen dollars. Each teacher and officer is asked to give ten cents to this work and each pupil two cents a year.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, First, That we endorse the earnest efforts that are being made by the State Secretary to bring the people of God in closer touch in the good work of spreading the Gospel through the Sunday-schools.

Second, That we promise the work our hearty support in all the financial aid in the effort of the field workers, and that we will urge our schools to be prompt in their support of the State Sunday-school work.

Third, That our thanks are extended to the people of his community for their generous hospitality and delightful entertainment.

CONFEDERATE DECORATION DAY.

On Saturday last Joseph H. Lewis, Chapter, U. D. C., and quite a crowd of friends met at the cemetery at 4 o'clock for the purpose of decorating the graves of the fallen heroes of the "Last Cause."

Rev. J. K. P. South delivered the invocation, and introduced the speakers. Hon. Thos. W. Scott, former Representative from this county, delivered a short and eloquent address. Rev. O. L. Powers, pastor of Providence Baptist Church, Woodlake, was the next speaker, and his speech was brilliant and logical, as all addresses delivered by this earnest young preacher are. Capt. Jas. W. Blackburn, of Spring Station, made a few remarks extolling the brave men who had died to do and die for what they believed to be right.

An abundance of beautiful flowers were then strewn upon the graves around the Confederate monument and upon those of the other Confederates who are buried in family lots.

The evening was ideal for the purpose and everything passed off delightfully.

"MY OWN STORY."

In a manly, clear-cut and concise way Mr. Caleb Powers has issued from the press a history of the "Goebel trouble" and the trials of the case, so far as he is concerned. It is as thrilling an appeal as was ever made to the chivalric sense of fair-play (which has always been the leading characteristic of Kentuckians) in behalf of a fair and impartial trial of the case. He simply asks, what every man has a right to demand under the Constitution of the United States, and of Kentucky, a fair and an impartial trial before an impartial jury, outside the realm of politics.

The book is on sale at the news depot of Mr. Guy Barrett.

ASCENSION DAY OBSERVANCE.

On Sunday last, Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, attended the services at Ascension Church, in observance of Ascension Day. To it was added the additional attraction that Sir Knight, Rev. R. L. McCready, who was to preach the sermon, was celebrating the tenth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Mr. McCready preached a strong, eloquent and tender sermon, just such an one as would be expected from this able and brilliant Knight of the Cross. It was a sermon well calculated to do good to all who heard and heeded the searching words of the speaker. His allusion to his dead friend, Mr. Edward Drane, was peculiarly pathetic.

At the beginning of the services, through Rev. A. B. Chinn, rector of the Church, Mr. McCready presented to the Church a handsome processional cross, as a memorial of Mr. Edward Drane.

There was a large congregation present, who thoroughly enjoyed the ministrations of this fearless and earnest minister.

There was a handsome turnout by the Commandery of Knights Templar, who each and every one are warm admirers of Mr. McCready.

GRAND MAN GRANDLY HONORED.

On Monday last, as introductory to the commencement exercises at Georgetown College, the fiftieth anniversary of Prof. J. J. Rucker, LL. D., as Professor of Mathematics, was celebrated.

Dr. John A. Lewis, Georgetown's splendid surgeon and physician, who is President of the Board of Trustees, presided, and opened the exercises by a chaste and appropriate address, paying deserved tribute to his former instructor.

Dr. Lewis was followed by Hon. Thos. W. Scott, of this county, who was also a student at Georgetown at the same time with Dr. Lewis. In glowing words Dr. Scott told of Dr. Rucker as "Teacher and Man."

A poem by Prof. J. C. Metcalfe, of Harvard College, was read by Rev. Dr. E. B. Pollard.

Mr. C. O. Smith, of Louisville, made the last address, which was equally appropriate, and at its conclusion, presented Dr. Rucker with a handsome gold medal from his former pupils and friends, and a bag of gold from the young lady pupils who had been under his care in the old female seminary.

Mr. Smith requested any of the class of 1855 present to stand up, and from the big crowd only four arose: Rev. T. J. Stevenson and Mr. Jas. H. Moore, of Georgetown; Rev. J. B. Tharp, of La-Grange, and Rev. S. T. Thompson, of Louisville.

Prof. Rucker was greatly moved by the occasion, and, while protesting that he was not worthy of the demonstration, in tender words thanked those who had so kindly remembered him. It was a grand man grandly honored.

QUALITY vs. QUANTITY.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Frankfort women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Frankfort woman's words:

Mrs. Tina Lagle, of 527 North St. Clair Street, wife of M. D. Lagle, proprietor of barber shop near the depot, says: "For some four or five years, I hardly knew what it was to be free from an aching back, and the irregular action of the kidneys at the same time, caused other symptoms, which were very annoying and distressing. Although I tried different remedies I was unable to find anything that would do me any permanent good until I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at J. W. Gayle's drug store. I had taken but a few doses of this good preparation when I realized I was regaining my health, and on a continuation of the treatment, I found my condition so much improved as to be almost beyond belief. For all of this I owe my thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills."

A FEARFUL FATE.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of New Orleans, La., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at all druggists.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

MISS GILTNER'S MUSIC CLASS RECITALS.

A series of recitals have been given during the week by the pupils of Miss Giltner showing the results of the year's work. The class has been quite large, and includes some of the best talent in the city. The programs gave evidence of quite a degree of advancement in musical culture on the part of the pupils, and some of these young musicians give promise of future success as musicians.

On Wednesday night, June 7th, at the home of Judge Hobson, a very pleasing program was given by Miss Rachel Settle, violin; Miss Mary Belle Hobson, piano; Miss Mary Swigert Hendrick, mandolin, and Miss Anne Baker, guitar.

On Thursday night, at the home of Dr. J. W. Gayle, a recital was given, in which the participants were Miss Virginia Nunn, violin and piano; Mr. George Gayle, violin; Miss Mary Gayle, piano; Mr. Isaac Locke, mandolin and guitar.

On Friday afternoon and Friday evening the general recital by all the pupils was given at the home of Mrs. Ellen A. Thomas.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Beautiful and select music was rendered by Mrs. Jennie T. Cardwell and the graduating class of the City High School, led by Prof. G. C. Downing, and under the musical directorate of Miss Aubyn Chinn, and Miss Lucy Chinn as pianist.

Miss Snie H. Slaughter, of Richmond, Va., granddaughter of Gov. Gabriel Slaughter, presented a beautiful piece of silverware, as a memorial of her grandfather.

Miss Slaughter was made an honorary member of the Society. Taken altogether the Society is to be heartily congratulated upon the good showing.

NEW ACADEMY FOR FRANKFORT.

Prof. J. B. Cassidy has just concluded a deal by which Prof. J. Boyd Seear, A. B. (a graduate of Kentucky University), and Miss Katherine Elizabeth Seear (late of Hamilton College, Lexington), become proprietors of the Frankfort Academy. The school building which is located at the corner of Second and Shelby streets, will be thoroughly overhauled, repaired, papered, painted, etc., and made attractive. The new proprietors are prepared to teach thoroughly Latin, French, German, Greek, all the English branches, mathematics, etc., so as to prepare scholars for entrance into any of the eastern Colleges. They are up-to-date in the proposed curriculum, and will conduct a high class school. They will take possession about the 15th of July and all necessary arrangements will be made for the opening of the school early in September.

It is hoped that this new institution will be given a liberal and satisfactory patronage.

SERIOUS FALL.

Jesse Corbett, one of the inmates of the Institute for Feeble-minded Children, from Hopkins county, fell from one of the third story windows of that place and was badly hurt. It is not known how Corbett came to fall as precautions are taken to prevent such an accident. The lad had his hip dislocated, and it is feared internal injuries occurred, as he remains unconscious.

Dr. J. W. Hill, the capable and accomplished Superintendent, is rendering all necessary surgical attention.

Success vs. Failure.

Optimism as a factor in the general thrift and contentment of a people depends upon the local conditions surrounding them, and the convenient facilities for carrying on the various avocations in which they are engaged. The farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the school teacher, each labor in their different callings, and each is independent of the other—as a special interest and pursuit, but each is also dependent in a greater or less degree upon the prosperity of the whole—and all are dependent upon such friendly and favorable conditions and surroundings, as will produce the best returns for the time, labor, means, and brains expended. This idea carried out gives to every producer, and every special business, a community interest in the welfare of all. Starting from such a vantage ground, let us notice what our country needs to place it in line with the most prosperous countries—and to place nature opens in the betterment of conditions socially, financially, and intellectually. Knowledge and power! As mental culture affords the greatest real enjoyment of life—and as the education of the masses is essential to the well-being of society, and to the good order and prosperity of a good free government, so are good schools a necessity of the times, and it is the duty of parents to prepare the children for the responsibilities of the hour!

If your son evidences mechanical tendency, do not try to make a lawyer out of him! If your daughter prefers to make her own gowns, let her become a dressmaker. Cultivate the boys—who love to farm, their rich reward in store for him! The soil has great effect upon the individual, and the farmer needs education more than he suspects. In this case optimist comes even up to the end of days, and a book, such as nature opens before his vision daily, must be read with the keenest sense of recognition, and a devotion commensurate with his love for the work. Do not try to teach if your heart is divided in interest and selfish prospect. It was far preferable to make a "cake for Charley," or care for the well being of the "old folks at home," than do this!

I was surprised and shocked to read in the papers of yesterday, regarding the great army of women, to be graduated in June, who will go out in to the busy mart as nurses, salesladies, typewriters (following out various lines of work), leaving home to become bread-winners. Who is to stay with mother and father in the old-fashioned country home?

What is to become of the home ties, its refining influence being essential to the well-being of every son and daughter of God. Let the restless activities be submerged in the quiet seclusion of this safe retreat, where the boy or girl may become as learned and cultivated as the "globe trotter" ever hoped to be!

Optimism, as a factor, is as certain to cure the ills we have as we accept and adapt it to the conscious occasions of the hour!

It is as perfect a panacea for the events of history, the qualifications needed for literary efficiency, and the educational attainments of the law, as it is in the lonely ranch life, the busy mart, the military barracks of the tented soldier. I observed this genuine whole-souled attribute in the recent convention of teachers assembled in the House of Representatives discussing the difficult phases of public school supervision, and the results to be obtained from legislation. The meeting was satisfactory from many viewpoints, principal among them being the earnest consecration of united purpose in and for the cause of education in Kentucky. The Governor, himself, being in touch with the movement, and promising aid in the adjustment or supervision of a co-adjutor. "They are slaves most base Whose love of right is for themselves, And not for all the race!"— and the optimism of success is in great measure the reward of success, accruing as a beneficent factor in the lives of those who work! The failure of the individual is the fault of the individual, and as the great poet wrote:

"'Tis not in mortals to command success,
But we'll do more, Sempronius;
We'll deserve it,"

"GHOSTS"—A STORY FOR MEN ONLY.

"Hello, Tom!"

This interrogation was accompanied by a familiar slap on my shoulder, and turning I met face to face a friend whom I had not seen for 20 years. "Why, Jack, old fellow!" I said with hand clasps of hoarse delight.

It was an unexpected meeting at a small water station on the S. F. R. in the mountains of Kentucky, where I had stepped from a freight to catch a passenger train back to Junction City.

"Come home with me, Tom, I live only a mile from here. You may take your back train next week, or to-morrow, just as you like, I need you, Tom!"

As we drove along the rough road in the two-horse wagon, talking over the changes since schoolmates at Lexington University in 1874 we just saw each other. I noticed how aged he had grown. Thin visaged, hollowed - eyed, sunken cheeks, grey-haired—he seemed to me an old man, and I wondered what had broken the heart as well as the physical strength of the handsome fellow who was once the pride in his school days, and field sports as well as being the favorite among our girl friends.

He loved him devotedly, but like many other friends he had passed into the realm of shadows, and to meet him in these rugged hills so changed and altered that my very soul ached for him with a sense of forbidding as strange as it was prophetic. I felt as if I had met death face to face in the shadows, and he had conquered fate.

My life, since Jack and I had separated, had been full of events, and he looked to the reality with quiet lips and averted eyes.

After leaving college I had taught in various country schools, but was now engaged in selling hardware, still holding bachelor's quarters at my father's home, near Georgetown, Ky.

"What about your life, Jack? You remember you were to be at the head of a great literary institution making name for our class, 'Alma Mater.' Are you married?" He evaded my question as he drew rein before a rough log cabin clear and spotless from whitewash and scrubbing.

Tall, forest trees surrounded the unpainted dwelling. There was no fence, but the place seemed alive with chickens and pigs.

A child was playing with a small, black and white dog, and I met the little girl crying, "fader, fader," then hiding behind the wheel as I stopped to caress her, while the puppy ran yelping under the porch.

"Where is your mother, Cynthia? Tell her a gentleman friend is with me to spend the night." As the child started to deliver the message her father caught her up in his arms, kissing her repeatedly. As she ran away, he said: "Little children keep yourselves from idle," and I read his heart history without the telling. "Go in the cabin, Tom. Do not mind how my wife greets you, but for our sake overlook all things and make yourself at home." His hospitality was unconventional, to say the least, but I walked into the small entrance and stood before the door without knocking. Why I failed to knock I do not know—even to-day. Presently there appeared in the light doorway the face of a woman. The saddest, sweetest face I ever saw.

Large, expressive blue eyes, hair as black as night, low oval face in braided softness. Figure slender, tall, gown in plain black cloth relieved at throat by a band of white. Her hands were clasped in entreaty, but she regarded me as a welcome friend, and not as an intruder. She spoke no word, but pointed to a small door which I entered finding a room fitted up with some conveniences, unexpected, and an atmosphere of home. Strip of rag carpet lay before a small canvas cot covered with coarse sheets turned back, a pair of blankets, red, and a quilt of peculiar pattern and effect. There was a tin wash basin and picher, with towels, a hanging mirror. One chair, raw-haired bottomed, and the small window without sash, with a shutter, was protected by a blue check curtain. After I had washed, I heard the voice of Jack calling me to supper.

SOUGHT AS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT.

J. S. McLain, author of "Alaska and the Klondike," accompanied the senatorial committee that went to Alaska in 1903; and it is from letters that he wrote to his own paper, The Minneapolis Journal, during the time he was traveling about Alaska that his book has been compiled. The members of the senatorial committee made every endeavor to get Mr. McLain to let his book be published as a Senate document; and in a letter urging him to do this, one of the Senators said that the committee considered the book one of the most valuable documents for the public they knew of.

DOCTOR WALLACE GIVES NEW ARGUMENT.

Alfred Russell Wallace, in an appendix, which appears only in the popular-price edition of "Man's Place in the Universe," which McClure-Phillips have just brought out, adds an important argument to his theory that man is the only thinking being in creation, and that he and his word are the center of the universe. This argument is based entirely on the theory of evolution, and is the strongest support to his idea that Doctor Wallace has yet produced. It is stated that the famous thinker, now dead in the realm of science, has set about writing his more specific autobiography.

Mr. Rousseau True, janitor of the public building, has been appointed by U. S. District Judge A. M. J. Cochran Special Commissioner to make sale of some 90,000 acres of land lying in Magdalen county. Do you want to live where the climate is mild the year round—where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, and where animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are more varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the division of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a competence?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital easily finds profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.

The Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western Line is the most direct route to the Pacific Coast, and there are two fast through trains daily via this line, over the famous double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri River.

Special low round-trip rates are in effect via this line throughout the summer to various Pacific Coast points, and colonist low rate one-way tickets will be on sale during September and October, which give an unusual chance for settlers to make the trip at a minimum of expense.
